"I am"
(you notice I don't say dear)
Here's luck to an all around sportsman (hunter, trapper, fisherman & whatever else you do) now I want you to be good over vacation, no shooting ducks & taking their feathers. But the time school starts next year
I hope you will have your traps all cleaned up.
Keep AWAY FROM GIRLS
a year a good kid and stay that way so long sportsman.
don't let one of them hook you or its together next year. Now that I ask you can we go hunting more in the future. hope we have yours truly
Dwain Fairbanks
P.S. nice kid but who likes nice kids!!!!!!!

Dear Dave,
 Remember all the fun we had in Rod's room and in Bond during Bond etc. Remember that night
 I and you slept up to your nose and the night you slept down to your nose. We will have to go fishing. We you now to catch that fish.

WINSHIEK

LA CROSSE WISC.

P.S. we will have to go on that double date some time. See you this summer

Foreword

The theme of the 1951 WINNESIEK was inspired by the tense condition of the world. On the cover of this year's annual are two high school seniors looking at the world symbolized by the United Nations emblem. These two seniors are called Larry and Lucy Logan throughout this WINNESHIEK. They are typical high school seniors, like thousands of others throughout the United States, who are preparing to leave school life and enter life's school.

The editors sincerely hope that the 1951 WINNESHIEK will help all of you to recall the happy years that you have spent at Logan.

The WINNESHIEK staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank the photography department of the La Crosse Tribune for pictures, the merchants for their patronage, the faculty for their aid, and the student body for their cooperation.

Hi Dave,
 I hope
 isn't too much for us to remember
 but I'll try to write a little bit
 you a ride when I used to write you're still living!! I remember the class and especially in school I per was really a trouble maker more than I I'll take much more that I can write so I'll give you lots of luck.

Dear Dave:
Remember when
you used to be walking passed the house + I'd give you a ride to school.
about the only class we have been in is English +
that's been fun.
Best of luck,
Naima

Treasurer: Jenette Cram

Senior Representative: Raymond Zimmerman

Junior Representative: Ralph Schultz

As a representative of his home room, Larry Logan spent much of his time working on the plans for the meeting of the District Student Councils at Logan. This convention was the main project of the Logan Student Council this year.

Kenneth Wittenberg served as chairman of this event which was under the general direction of Russell Cleary, Student Council president. This convention was held in the new section of the school and students from nearly all the area high schools attended to learn more about how to conduct council affairs.

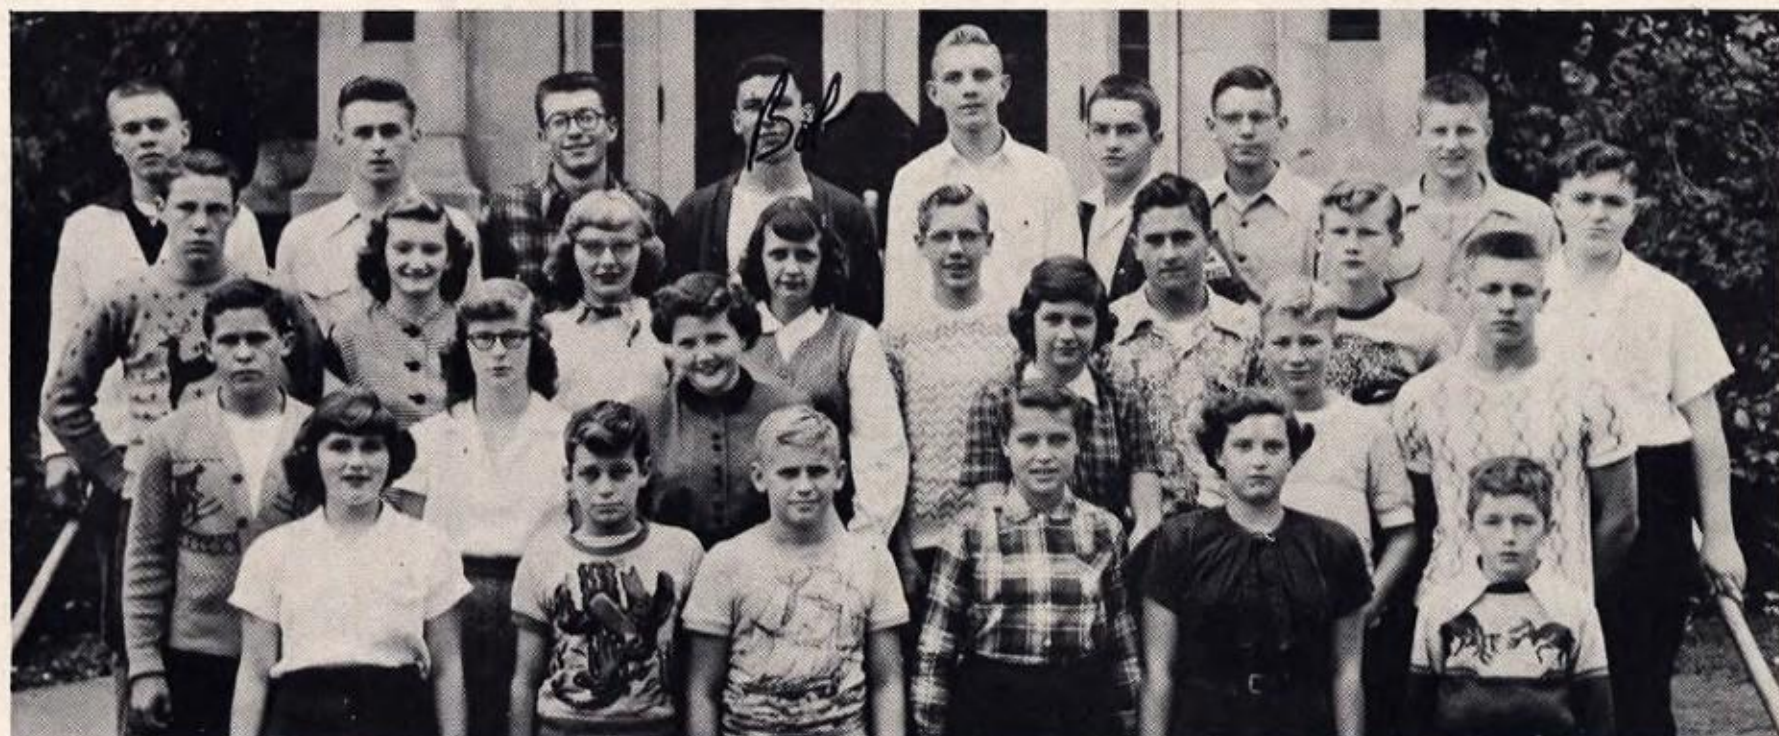

Operating all of the concession stands during athletic contests was another project undertaken by the Logan Council. This work supplied the Student Council with the needed money.

Election of officers for the Student Council are held in the spring. This year Russ Cleary was chosen president. Other students elected to offices were: Bob Otto, vice president; Virginia Nelson, secretary; Jenette Cram, treasurer; Ray Zimmerman, Senior High representative; and Ralph Schultz, Junior High representative.

As a special service to the school this organization sponsors the Spring Prom. Working with the art department, selecting a theme and orchestra, and handling the election of the king, were all a part of the work on the prom.

Mr. D. Hoyt is the faculty adviser for the Student Council.

Staff at work. Left to right:
R. Cleary, J. Cram, and D. Kowalke.

Winneshiek

Lucy and Larry Logan are both interested in journalism. So here they sit at the table in the Logan publication office, all their efforts concentrated on the production of the Logan yearbook, the WINNESHIEK. They are but two of approximately fifty students who serve on the WINNESHIEK staff. All have worked hard on this yearbook, which describes the 1951 school year from beginning to end.

The composition, write-up, business, art, photography, and sports staffs do the real work on the annual.

Larry and Lucy and their co-workers are under the direction of the editor-in-chief Russ Cleary. It is he who sets up a dummy annual and directs the staffs until press time.

Sally Hendrickson is the write-up editor. Her job is to secure information about organizations, and she and her workers compile it for publication.

Don Kowalke is the composition editor, and he and his staff cut, identify, and mount the pictures. They also give necessary assistance to the editor-in-chief.

Money for the 1951 annual was raised this year by the business managers, Sharon Blank, Judy Ulrich and Joyce Dikeman, who were under the supervision of Mr. Edwin Saenger.

The sports activities at Logan this year are covered by Dalton Noel for the boys and Dorothy Loughan for the girls.

Bert Phillips and Donald Schaefer head the photography staff. This year the photographs, with the exception of the Seniors, were all taken by the WINNESHIEK staff.

The illustrations were drawn by Ken Wittenberg, the art editor.

The Winneshiek adviser is Miss Patricia Mahoney.

Now Lucy and Larry descend the stairs and enter the publication room. They go directly to the bulletin board and copy their assignments, for they are reporters on the Logan LOG, the school newspaper. Here they get experience in journalistic writing. The LOG is printed once each month. Lucy and Larry began as Cub reporters and upon completing a successful year became Star reporters. The Star Reporters for this year were Virginia Nelson, Christine Erlandson, and Jenette Cram.

The girls' sports editor was Virginia Nelson, and for the boys, Wayne Paulson.

The beginning reporters were Donna Pederson, Dorothy Burch, James Wartinbee, Joyce Thompson, Rosalee Chesebro, Shirley McCoy, and Mary King.

For the last two years the Logan LOG has had co-editors, Charlene Widener and Georgia Wright. The co-editors hand out assignments, write editorials, and set up the dummy for the LOG each month.

The adviser for the LOG was Miss Patricia Mahoney and the business adviser was Mr. Edwin Saenger. The business managers were Joyce Dikeman, Sharon Blank and Judy Ulrich.

The typists for this year were Janet Hanson and Donna Pederson.

Adults as well as Logan students are interested in reading the Logan LOG. Issues are sent out each month to local libraries and near by high schools for exchange.

The LOG staff members are required to keep a "string book". This notebook kept by each reporter includes all assignments for the previous year. This book is handed in at the end of the school year and determine next year's Star Reporters. Each reporter must have one hundred inches of personal writing in order to become a Star Reporter.

The members of the LOG staff get reporting, feature writing and editing experience which may lead to further training in this field upon graduation.

Georgia Wright and Charlene Widener.

Front Row: D. Pederson, D. Burch, L. Haefner, K. Wittenberg, D. Plapp, and J. Gutzke.

In a clear and pleasant voice, Larry Logan speaks from the podium. Everyone listening knows that this well-trained, clear-thinking speaker is typical of the Logan students trained for debate.

The participation in debate activities at Logan has been spirited. Since formal debate instruction was introduced at Logan only two years ago, the fine record of the squads has been remarkable. Logan debaters took many honors at meets this year, and they proved to be one of the outstanding teams in the state of Wisconsin.

Twelve debaters practiced for the senior squad at Logan this year. Eight of them represented the school at tournaments. At the beginning of the year, these debaters held practice meets with McDonnell, Blair, Concordia, Chetek, New Richmond, Minneapolis Southwest, Galesville, and Aquinas high schools.

During the 1950-51 season, Team "A" attended tournaments at Eau Claire, Blair, Carleton College, Gustavus Adolphus College, the district tournament at La Crosse Teachers College, the sectional tournament at Stevens Point State Teachers College, and the state tournament at the University of Wisconsin.

This season the "A" Debate Team won thirty out of forty-eight debates. They won the district tournament, tied for third place in the sectional, and tied for third in the state tournament which was made up of winners from the sectional meets.

Younger students interested in learning how to debate have been given an unusual opportunity this year. Miss E. Eggert instructed Junior Debate members in the fundamentals of debating. They were shown how to set up cases and some actual experience was gained by them when they participated in the district tournament in La Crosse.

The national question for secondary school debaters this year was, "Resolved: That the American People Should Reject the Welfare State".

Mr. Daniel B. Hoyt directed the activities of the Senior Debate Squad.

Many fine dramatic productions were produced during 1950 and 1951 by the Logan students. Both Lucy and Larry Logan were selected to be in the cast for some of these plays. In these they obtained excellent dramatics instruction and experience under Mr. John Harlan.

The mid-year all school play was a mystery with deep dramatic acting and with a cast consisting of the following: Ken Wittenberg as Elliot Butterfield; Lenore Haefner, as Judy, a mysterious colored servant; Jim Moe as Sam, a colored boy; Charlene Widener as Marion Blackwell; Dick Johnson as Douglas Blackwell; Phyllis Culbert as Laurette Payne; Ken Johnson as Silas Willaby, the old man's secretary; La Verne Nichols as the inspector and Shirley McCoy as Miss Brown, a nurse.

The play takes place in an old mansion where the four heirs, Elliot, Marion, Douglas, and Laurette are supposed to spend three nights. Upon completion of this they will inherit the fortune, but in case they failed to remain, the money went to Silas Willaby and Judy. Silas Willaby and the inspector were both killed mysteriously, but after many other weird happenings the play came to a surprise ending. Judy, supposedly deaf and dumb, was discovered to have been married to the old man who died and was trying to get all the money for herself.

This year, for the first time at Logan, a full length play was given in assembly. It was "We Shook the Family Tree". In the cast was Barbara McCann as Hildegard, La Verne Nichols as Freddie Shermer, Joanne Ender as Mrs. Dolson, Tom Barton as her husband, Mr. Dolson; Sue Teachout as Sally, Philip Kolbo as Bob, Gary Graff as Jimmy, Burdeen Wilder as Paige, Rae Terpstra as

The plot of the play was built around Hildegard who was tired of being a wallflower and who was trying millions of things to relieve the situation. Meanwhile her mother is insistant that she go to the prom with Freddie Shermer, whose parents are friends of the family. Because he wears knickers, she is afraid she'll be very embarrassed but after many trials and errors, long pants were obtained for Freddie and everything turned out all right.

The 1950 Senior Class play's plot was woven around a young girl making her debut. She herself wanted to become an actress, so she ran away from home. Her four aunts, when they finally found her, were shocked when they discovered she had obtained a part in a Broadway production. Included in the cast of "Nancy Ann" was Dorothy Lowell, Dick McCown, Tom Zunker, Barbara Herried, Rayone Kirkhorn, Louise Stephans, Carol Smith, Faye Turno, Bob Figgie, Janice Merwin, Evelyn Slaback, Jeannine Staats, Elwood Harebo, Doug Muth, and Jerry Severson.

The cast of the 1951 Senior class play has been announced but as this goes to press the play hasn't been given so a review is not available. In "Glamor Boy" are Dick Johnson, Ken Wittenberg, Charlene Widener, Lenore Haefner, Ronald Cotton, Dalton Noel, Barbara Blankenship, Greta Nickerson, Pat Ebner, Georgia Wright, Jenette Cram, Darlene Anderson, Fred Smith, Don Johnson, Janice Boyd, and Kent Thurston.

BIRD CLUB

While participating in the Bird Club Lucy and Larry Logan found out that bird study is a most absorbing and rewarding hobby and leads to many kindred interests. Everyone that has participated in this fine organization has obtained many benefits from their work. Logan Bird Club members have caught the enthusiasm and interest of their sponsor, Miss Faye Aldrich, who organized the club six years ago to carry on individual and club activities with lively participation.

The work of this club reveals to the members what birds do for man and what man owes the birds in return. As projects the members erected treat trees, which are either growing trees utilized by hanging pieces of bread, cake, suet and cookies or a cut tree with melted fat or suet poured over it, made bird houses and feeders, and charts and scrapbooks of birds. The members learn how to recognize various birds and their calls, how the place of birds fits in nature's scheme and their function, the habits of birds, and how they can help them.

Bird Club members may progress toward the highest award, which is a gold pin, by collecting points for various activities. They may obtain points by completing their bird charts, feeding birds, attending club meetings, and reporting on nature hikes and books.

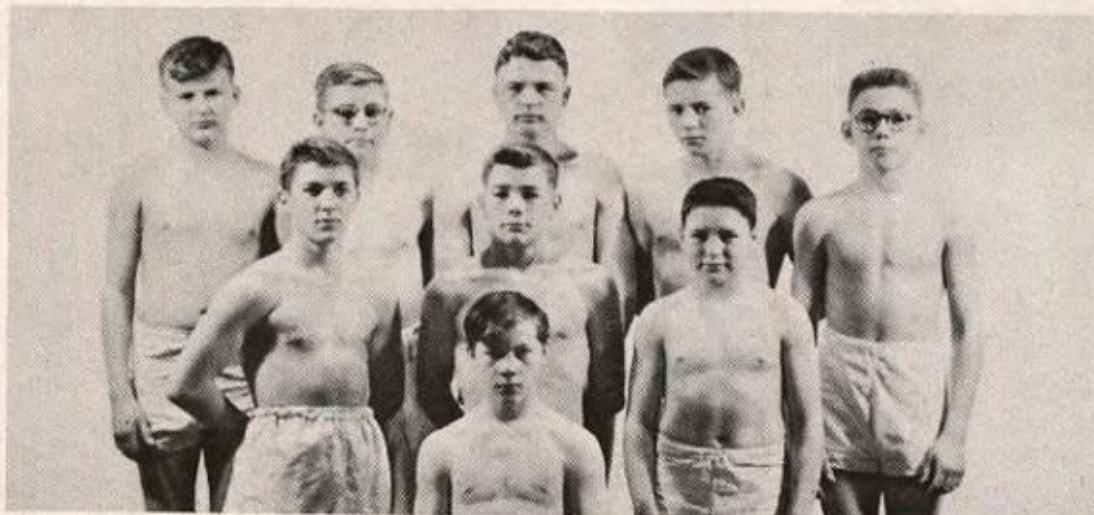

Membership of the club is open to Logan pupils of any grade. The Club is affiliated with the National Audubon Society to which seven million boys and girls belong.

Fifteen active members of the twenty-five enrolled in the club are: Gloria Severson, Kay Swartz, Joyce Traister, Gloria Fluekiger, Dorothy Ingallis, Richard Staats, Richard Schoenfeld, Robert Briggs, Jeannette Runniger, Dolly Kennicott, Ronald Garves, James Wang, Lee Lumley, Charles Horton, and Jerry Poellinger.

Early in April the Logan Bird Club received honorable mention by Dion Henderson in his associated press article on Outdoor Wisconsin.

JUNIOR TUMBLING

One of the best body building sports at Logan in which Larry Logan participates is tumbling. The Logan Junior Tumbling Squad is in its second year of existence. These Junior high school boys, under the supervision of Roland Larson, usually work with the members of the Senior Tumbling Squad. Their aim is to become proficient enough to join the Senior squad. This year approximately fifteen boys made up the Junior team throughout the year. Although they made no public appearances this year they show signs of continuing the excellent reputation of Logan's Senior Tumbling Squad in the years to come.

OFFICE PAGES

Lucy Logan had wanted to be an Office Page ever since she entered Logan in the seventh grade. She realized that only trust-worthy girls would be chosen for this work and so she made every effort to impress her teachers with her courteous efficiency. In the tenth grade her efforts were rewarded; she was chosen by Mrs. D. Terpstra to become one of her valuable office assistants.

When Mrs. Terpstra selects girls from study hall to act as Office Pages, she chooses well-mannered, friendly, efficient girls who are capable of doing the tasks they are asked to perform in a business-like manner.

Office Pages have various duties such as being messengers for the office and faculty, collecting and recording absentee passes, answering the telephone, and assisting Mr. Field's secretary, Mrs. Dobbs.

Logan is fortunate in having girls who are willing to give up their study periods for this school service, but as Lucy says, "It's really a lot of fun".

HALL GUIDES

Sitting at a table inside the front entrance of Logan High School is Larry Logan. He is one of the Hall Guides who contribute to the fine appearance and studious quietness of Logan corridors. This organization acts on the order of a student police force, patrolling the halls to see that lockers look neat with the doors closed and floors kept cleared of paper.

When Mr. Roland Larson, the Hall Guide adviser, is considering students for this organization, he selects friendly, neat appearing students, whom he knows are courteous, dependable and honest.

One of the duties of the Hall Guides is to examine hall passes issued by the office or a faculty member.

Visitors receive a good impression of Logan when they are courteously escorted to the various rooms or offices by these students. Even during the noon hour the Hall Guides are busy, for it is their duty to see that the doors are kept locked and that the halls are free of students.

Stage Crew and Sound Crew

STAGE CREW

One of the most important organizations with which Larry Logan and his friends are associated is the Logan Stage Crew. Most Logan students do not realize that success in the stage productions is due not only to the actors and performers who take part in the production but also to the behind-the-scene work of the Stage Crew. It can almost be said that they make something out of nothing, because they make fine, realistic scenes out of cardboard, canvas, and wood frames. The many jobs performed by this group of hardworking boys include setting up and painting scenery, handling the stage and house lights, and the opening and closing of the stage curtains. The Stage Crew handled all the stage effects during the Spring concert and have charge of the stage for all activities.

Many difficult problems which arise must be solved by the boys with the help of their adviser, Mr. John Harlan.

SOUND CREW

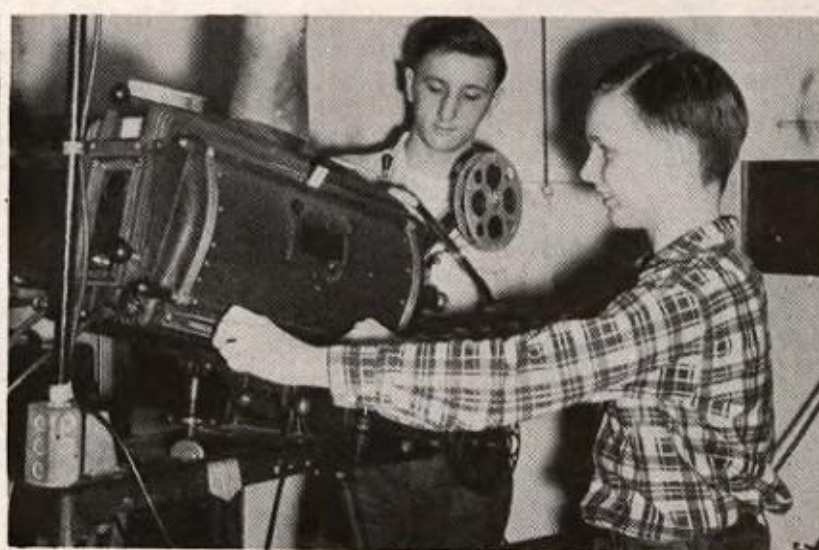

Several friends of Larry Logan are members of the Sound Crew. Highly technical positions of trust are delegated to these skillful members. Hardly a day goes by without a member of this crew performing an act of service to the school.

Members of the faculty often call upon them to show an educational film or to install a microphone for class room use. They do this during their study periods.

Theatrical productions at Logan also lean heavily on the services of this group. It is up to them to set up the microphones in the auditorium for guest speakers. They also set up the public address system in the gymnasium for basketball games and dances as well as out on the football field in the fall.

The Memorial Day program on the lawn would lose its effectiveness if it were not for the setting up of an efficient sound system.

The director of this group of boys is Mr. W. L. Ranis.

Service in both war time and peace time is given by the American Junior Red Cross organization in which high school pupils throughout the nation are important members.

Both Lucy and Larry Logan had the honor of being elected Junior Red Cross representatives of their respective home rooms. They, with other home room representatives, were present at all the Logan Junior Red Cross meetings.

Representatives are sent from both junior and senior high school home rooms; however, the two councils meet separately, although they co-operate on all projects. These representatives are the liaison members between the home rooms and the school councils. Membership drives are conducted in the home rooms under their supervision.

This year the home rooms filled thirty Christmas gift boxes which were sent to countries where children are deprived of these essentials because of recent wars. The school did handicraft work such as seasonal favors, posters, and scrapbooks for hospitals and other institutions.

The Art department prepared an Independence Day project of one hundred and twenty-five nut cups and filling, along with napkins and holders which will be sent to the Tomah Veterans Hospital.

This year a Christmas program was given and gifts distributed at the Home for the Aged by Junior Red Cross members and the music department.

Miss Helen Gilson is the Senior council adviser. The officers for this year were: president, Barbara McCann; vice-president, Jean Martin; secretary, LaVerne Nichols; and treasurer, Marcus Doolittle.

Miss Vivian Johnson is the Junior council adviser. The officers for this council were: president, Joan Thompson; vice-president, Vincent Marco; secretary, Diane Collins; and treasurer, Marlene Oldenburg.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

Out of the front door of the school comes Lucy Logan accompanied by a group of girls. They all climb into waiting cars and are gone in an instant. These girls all belong to the Senior Y-Teens and are setting out on another trip to become better acquainted with their community. During this year they have visited the Dolly Madison Dairy, the La Crosse Tribune, the Trane Company, the La Crosse County Court House, the La Crosse Police and Fire Departments, the Rubber Mills, and the State Teachers College.

Active membership in the Y-Teens develops leadership and dependability. Members take part in Vesper Services at the Young Women's Christian Association. They serve their school by frequently ushering at school functions.

The officers for this school year are: Jackie Klaus, president; Hazel Scarseth, vice president; Renee Schwalbe, secretary; and Joyce Schultz, treasurer. The adviser for the Senior Y-Teens is Miss Elsie Engelke.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

Lucy Logan has many friends among the junior high girls belonging to the Junior Y-Teens. She, as a former member of this organization, knows the cooperative spirit that exists between the members and their adviser, Mrs. D. Terpstra.

She remembers the interesting, educational, and jolly times that she had as a Junior Y-Teen. Her friends tell her that this year was no exception.

During the school year these girls were active in many civic and school affairs. The holiday seasons found them bringing joy to others through caroling and other service projects. At Easter time clever Easter eggs were made to be distributed to the sick and elderly.

Picnics, parties, and meetings kept all of the members interested and busy. All of these were planned and executed by the members themselves under the direction of Mrs. D. Terpstra.

This year's officers were: President, Peggy Grimslid; vice president, Dottie Lehmeier; secretary, Shirley Taylor; and treasurer, Delores Graff.

"U-Rah-Rah, Logan High!" yells Lucy Logan as she leads the student body in that familiar cheer. All eyes are upon her in her bright red skirt and her white sweater as she directs the cheering. She certainly is representative of "the team behind the team", the Logan Pep Club.

The Pep Club has been very active throughout the year. Brand new uniforms were purchased for the cheer leaders. Red pleated skirts, white tailored blouses, white-v-necked slipover sweaters, ankle socks with angora cuffs, and saddle shoes make up these new uniforms.

Buses for out of town games, new yells, and new pep song have all been sponsored by this organization. Miss A. Inman has charge of this club.

The annual Football Dance was an important part of their school service program. Marlene Voves was chosen "Sweetheart of Logan Hi" and served as queen of this dance.

The cheerleaders are the most prominent members of the organization, but the entire membership is responsible for the well-organized enthusiasm at the games and pep assemblies.

Hard work has gone into the humorous skits which have preceded important football and basketball games. Mr. D. E. Field and the various coaches have been invited as guest speakers at these assemblies which have been held in both the auditorium and the new gymnasium.

The officers of the Pep Club are: Joyce Larson, president; Anita Abraham, vice president; Jennette Cram, secretary and treasurer.

BATON CLUB

Left, right—left, right—the spectators lined along the street catch sight of the flash of a twirling baton and they know that the parade is about to appear.

With plumes flying the baton group is truly the pulse of the band. Their vitality, which seems natural, is all the result of long practice sessions held by the Baton Club.

The baton club is composed of advanced twirlers as well as beginners. In addition to twirling, these twirlers practice marching. Several fundamentals of handling the baton are stressed such as the two-hand spin, figure eight, and cartwheel. The advanced twirlers practice those baton twirls with which they are already familiar. Certain requirements must be met, even by the advanced members before they can appear with the Junior or Senior Band.

A Logan student, Rita Schuttenhelm is in charge of both the junior and senior instruction classes.

The officers of the Baton Club are: President, Gloria Schaeffer; Vice-President, Peggy Grimslid; Secretary, Carol Zirbes; Treasurer, Carmen Elliott.

L. C. CLUB

The L. C. Club is an organization to which all letter winners belong. Anyone who earns a letter in any sport, such as track, basketball, football, and tennis automatically becomes a member of this organization.

To earn an L. C. letter, a boy must attend all regular practices, participate in a certain number of games, and be morally as well as physically fit. These letters are given out at one of the school assemblies.

SENIOR BAND

Down the street comes the Logan Senior Band. In the group are Lucy and Larry Logan attired in the snappy red and white uniforms which have been made famous by this noted marching band.

The Logan Senior Band is composed of forty-five members under the direction of Mr. A. Gossfeld.

As was true with the other musical organizations at Logan, the Senior Band's participation in the Spring Concert was the main project for the year. There they played: "Overture Americana", "Hall of Fame", "Cinderella's Glass Slipper", "Victory Overture", "Prince and the Pauper" and "Interlude", a clarinet solo by Janice Boyd accompanied by the band. The band accompanied the choir in "Onward Christian Soldiers".

Senior Band officers are: Janice Boyd, president; James Wartinbee, vice president; Sue Teachout, secretary-treasurer; Richard Johnson and Sally Anderson are librarians; and Ralph Olson and Garry Graff are in charge of uniforms.

SENIOR CHOIR

The audience is silent as the black robed figures of the Senior Choir file into the auditorium. They are followed by their director, Mr. M. Disrud.

Lucy Logan's mother and father proudly watch as their daughter takes her place in the soprano section. They are pleased when Lucy lifts her voice in harmony with the choir, sixty-seven voices strong.

The Senior Choirs main project for the year was the Spring Musical held on March 8. At this concert they sang "Oklahoma", "The Music of Life", "Heavenly Light", "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning", "Praise to the Lord", "Rock-a My Soul", "The Lord Bless You and Keep You", "Ole Arks A-Moverin", "Hospudic Pomiliu", and "Onward Christian Soldiers". The Senior Choir and the Senior Band appeared together in one of these numbers. The finale for this program was a combination of the Logan Senior Orchestra combined with the Senior Choir in "A Song is You".

As Lucy and Larry Logan peek in the door of Room 207 they are surprised to see a group of students practicing on musical instruments even though it is only seven forty-five o'clock in the morning! This is just a small sample of the enthusiasm exhibited by the members of the Junior Band.

The main project undertaken by the Junior Band this year was the concert they presented at the Parent Teacher Association Coffee, February sixteenth. To advertise this concert, the band presented a portion of it on the WLCX "Logan on the Air" program.

Marching practice is also included in the program of these young musicians. They spend many days preparing for Memorial Day, when the Junior Band gets a chance to perform in a city-wide parade.

The Junior Band is under the direction of Mr. Armin Gossfeld.

The Logan twins gained musical experience in the Junior Choir. They learned the discipline and music fundamentals necessary to participation in a group presenting public programs.

The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mr. M. Disrud, has sixty-three members. This organization has appeared in assemblies and at the P. T. A. Coffee this year.

Any boy or girl in the eighth or ninth grade interested in music may join the Junior Choir. Many of the students are anxious to become proficient enough to join the Senior Choir. But while practicing they have the pleasure of belonging to a fine organization.

The officers are: Ralph Schultz, president; Linda Lehman, secretary-treasurer; Sharon Blank, Lois Knutson and Alayne Baker, gown committee; Gayle Wittenberg and Ray Jensen, librarians.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

As Lucy and Larry Logan tuck their violins under their chins, their eyes are on the conductor, Mr. Armin Gossfeld. The entire orchestra responds to the baton of the director, and strains of Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto float through the hall.

The high point of the year for the Logan Orchestra is the Spring Concert. This year the Gypsy Trail Overture, Themes from Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2, Nocturne from a Midsummer Night's Dream, Selections from the Merry Widow, Music in the Air containing selections by Jerome Kern were heard by an appreciative audience.

Two string groups selected from the orchestra play for many special programs in and out of school. Sally Hendrickson, Mary Muth, Lenore Haefner, Dottie Lehmeier, Janet McCown, and Judy Ulrich are the members of these two string trios.

The officers for the Logan Orchestra for the 1950-51 season were: Richard Johnson, president; Janice Brown, vice president; Janice Christianson, secretary-treasurer; and the librarians, Lenore Haefner and Mary Muth.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

When Lucy Logan was a member of the Junior Orchestra, she learned the rudiments of music necessary for participation in the Senior Orchestra.

The Junior Orchestra is an organization in which the school's younger musicians participate. Eighteen pupils were members of this orchestra which was under the direction of Mr. A. Gossfeld. These students played with the Senior Orchestra at the Christmas program and thirteen members were selected to play with them for the Spring Concert.

This is the third year that Logan has sponsored the Junior Orchestra. This organization gives musically inclined students an opportunity to learn fine music under the direction of a trained musician.

PIPE ORGAN

Up to the organ walks Larry Logan. He seats himself, arranges his music, and places his fingers on the keys of Logan's most unusual instrument, the pipe organ. Few high schools in the nation can boast of possessing such an expensive instrument for school use.

The adults in charge of the organ play an important part in the usage of it. Mrs. C. Wollan comes to Logan twice a week to give pipe organ lessons. Miss E. Vold also gives lessons and has charge of all organ programs. Mr. W. Ranis has charge of its upkeep.

The organ played a large part in many school programs this year. In response to a special request from the Teachers' Club, a program of Christmas music was furnished for the city-wide Christmas tea by the organ students.

In addition, organ music was featured as a part of the program of the annual Spring Concert presented by the music department. As the opening and closing musical portion of the "Logan on the Air" radio broadcast, a student organist played the school song on the pipe organ.

SWING BAND

With a gleam in his eye and an instrument case in his hand, Larry Logan steps into Room 207. As he opens the door, the sounds that escape from that room give all in the vicinity that foot tapping urge that jazz has been giving the rhythmically inclined since the days of the famous lower Basin Street performers. This room is the home of the popular Logan Swing Band which is sponsored by the La Crosse Recreation Department.

Larry has joined his friends to practice for assemblies, and dances. Several times this year the Swing Band has exchanged dance engagements with similar organizations in neighboring towns. They play regularly for the Recreation Department's Jive Hive dances.

Slow dreamy music and popular jump tunes are played with equal versatility and no one can miss that professional touch which is given all the music that they play. Larry is happy because he enjoys both classical and swing music.

Practicing is done on the musician's own time which is proof of their enthusiasm. The organization is under the direction of Mr. Armin Gossfeld.

TRIPLE TRIO

With eight other girls Lucy Logan had the honor of singing in the Girl's Triple Trio. This group is a very busy one, and has performed publicly many times. The most important public performance was at the Logan Spring Concert, when they sang with the Senior Orchestra. They also sang at the Variety Show, a Logan Booster Club meeting, several surrounding churches and at various other places. They presented a program at Camp McCoy with the Logan Tumbling Team.

The nine girls who compose this triple trio are Mary Yehle, Georgia Wright, Sally Anderson, Janice Boyd, Karen Hanson, Joyce Larson, Mary Muth, Phyllis Culbert and Pat David.

The adviser is Mr. Martell Disrud.

THE BOY'S QUARTETTE

A group which is one of the most popular with the Logan students and in which Larry Logan participated is the Boy's Quartette. This talented foursome combines humor and music in their performances. They have sung numerous times during the year.

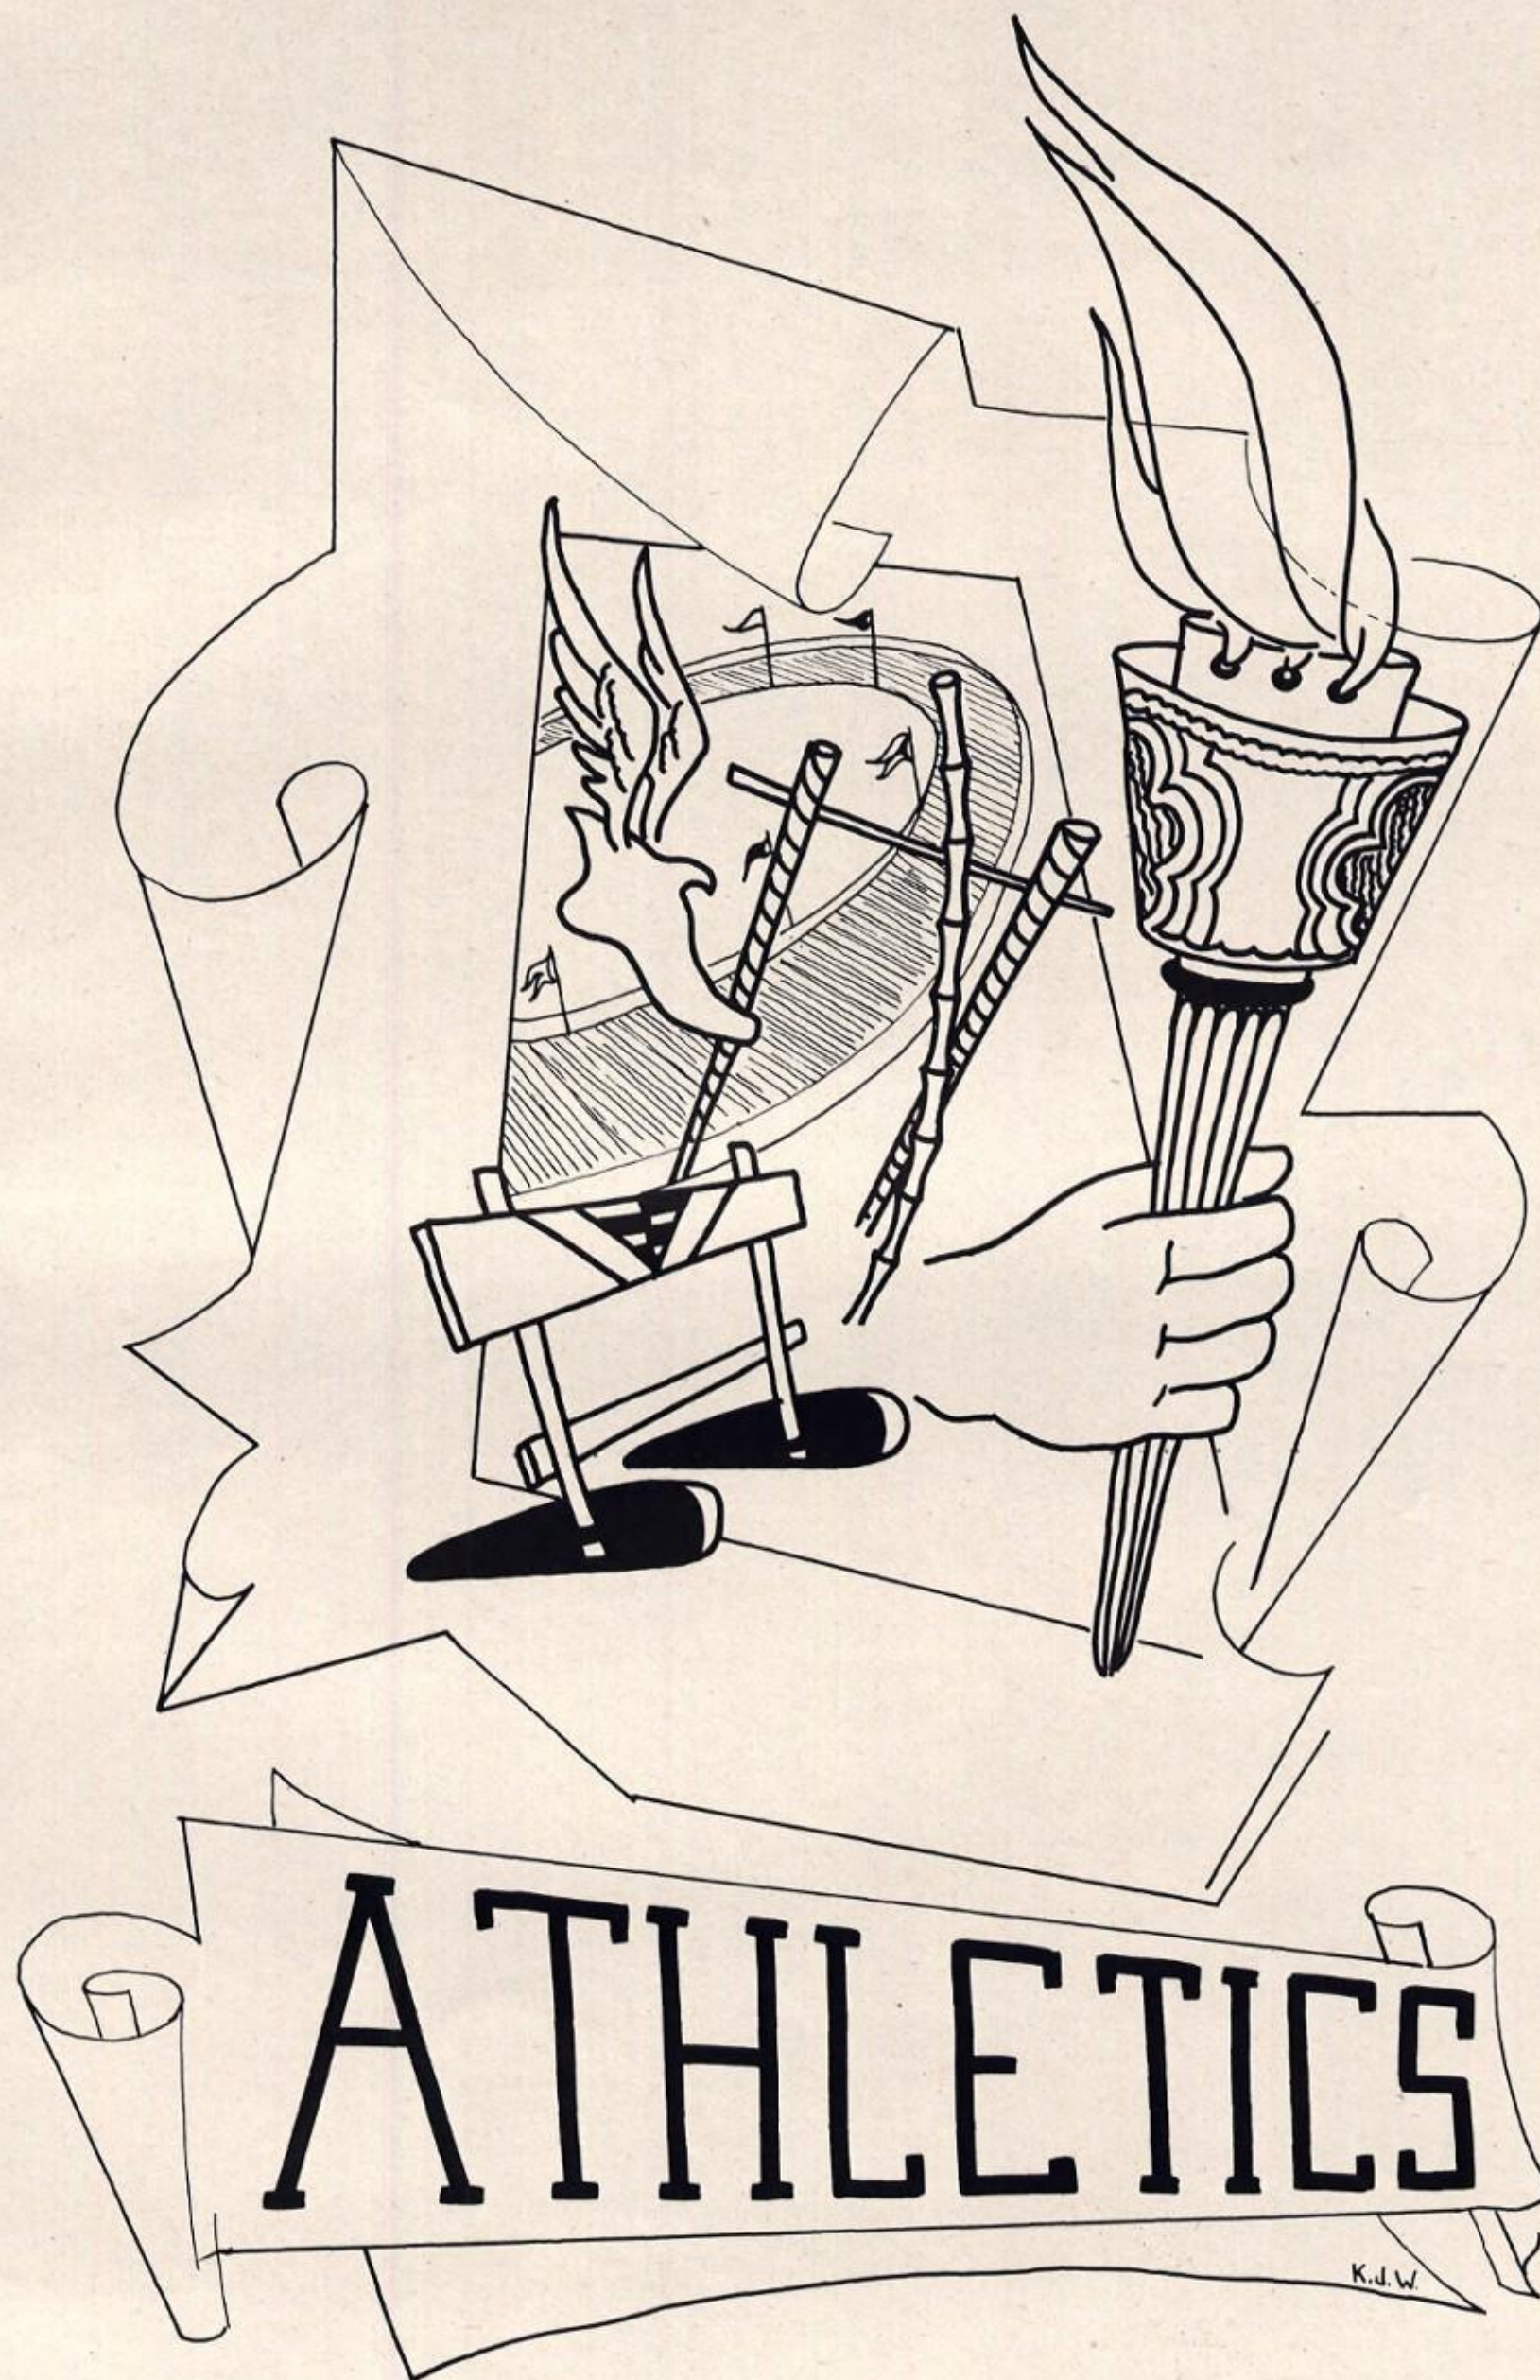

These boys succeeded in winning a prize in the Variety Show and have pleased audiences over "Logan On the Air", the assemblies, and at other performances which they have given during the year.

The members of this quartette include Bud Cole, James Gutzke, Donald Johnson and Ronald Cotton. This group is under the supervision of Mr. Martell Disrud.

Teams and Coaches

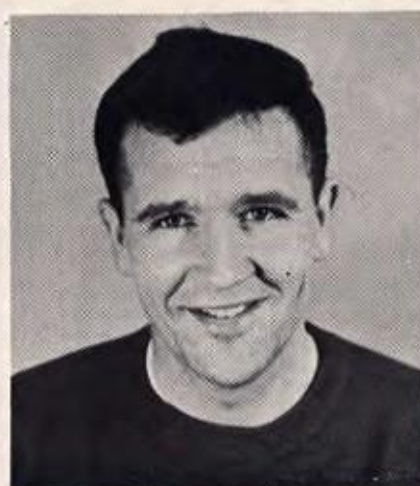

What makes a good team? That is a question that has plagued coaches and athletes since games were invented. Certainly good coaching plus hard-working, alert boys is at least a part of the answer. Perhaps the rest of the answer lies in that elusive quality called spirit. Anyway winning teams seem to possess all three of these essentials.

What makes a good coach? Persistence, patience, a knowledge of the game, and an understanding of teen-age boys are assets indispensable to a high school coach. The coach must learn to recognize the ability and ambition of the boys who desire to be athletes. He must be a fine teacher so that the boys may learn sportsmanship and cooperation through practical application.

We may not have answered the questions posed above, but everyone at Logan knows that the top-notch athletic teams we have at Logan are no accident. The coaches and the athletes and the school spirit deserves all of the credit.

Logan 7—Decorah 7

Logan might have won this game on Mlsna's crack from the two yard line except for a penalty, back field in motion, in the closing minutes of the game.

In the second quarter, Daffinson, Mlsna, and Smith picked up a first down, bringing the ball to the eight yard line. Mlsna gained three yards in two plunges and Lachman went around right end for Logan's six pointer after taking the ball from the tailback.

The extra point was the result of a faked place kick which surprised the opposition when Smith pitched a pass to Otto in the end zone. Outstanding line men were Otto, Wuest, Knight and Cotton. Decorah's touchdown came in the second quarter. They ran the extra point.

1st Row—H. Streigle, I. Stuhr, R. Smith, R. Poelinger, K. Thurston, R. Ferris, T. Davidson, E. Schumacher.

Logan 27—Winona 0

The Rangers keep their pace down in the first half, only scoring one touchdown. The second half Logan opened up and kept going. Dick Poellinger scored the first in the second half and Daffinson split the up-rights. Mlsna made the next and Daffinson made the extra point. Smith, behind good blocking, streaked 990 yards for a touchdown. Robertson, Mlsna, Smith, Daffinson, Poellinger, and Ferris did outstanding offensively. Logan's whole line stood out defensively: Cotton and Timms—Guards; Marco—Center; Knight—Tackle and also Tom Caspersen—Quarterback, who did blocking.

Logan 0—Aquinas 20

All of the scoring came in the first half as Aquinas turned back a determined driving attack by Logan. The second half proved to be an exchange of the ball with neither side scoring.

Logan had ten first downs to Aquinas' eight and the Rangers outdistanced the Bluegolds on the ground one hundred and ninety-six yards to one hundred and seventy-eight. However, the passing attack of Aquinas seemed to spell the difference for Aquinas completed four passes for one hundred and two yards while Logan completed only one pass netting them one yard. Caspersen and Mlsna were outstanding in the back field. Lang played an exceptional good line game.

Logan 13—Central 0

Logan scored within the first five minutes of play and maintained the edge through most of the game. Central outplayed Logan most of the second half but a 50 yard scoring play in the third quarter made the Rangers safe.

Warren Robertson set up the first touch-down with two plays bringing the ball to the three yard line. Mlsna plunged over for the touchdown. Daffinson's kick was no good. In the third quarter, Mlsna hit Otto with a jump pass and Otto in turn lateraled to Daffinson who went all the way from Central's 43 to a touchdown.

This victory gave Logan the ark for the fourth year.

Logan 25—Chippewa 0

Opening huge holes in the Cardinal line and sweeping the ends with ease, Logan racked up fourteen first downs and a total of two hundred and forty-four yards rushing. The Ranger defense limited the Falls' team to two first downs and only seventy-six yards by rushing.

Blaine Mlsna, Larry Daffinson, Tom Caspersen, Bud Smith, and Don Lachman handled the ball for the Logan touchdowns. Mlsna scored the first one six minutes after the game started.

A twenty-three yard pass from Lachman to Smith proved to be an exciting set-up for another Ranger touchdown.

Johnson, Cotton and Marco showed special strength in the line.

Logan 6-Tomah 7

An eighty-five yard runback of an intercepted pass with only twenty seconds remaining in the first half handed Tomah the North-Central Conference victory over Logan at Swanson Field.

Logan held Tomah to a total of ninety yards gained from scrimmage while they piled up a total of one hundred and ninety-seven yards.

Trailing 7-0 at the beginning of the second half, Logan came back with a ninety-one yard touchdown march. A jump-pass from Daffinson to Otto on the five yard line was the last play in this sustained drive which did not net a touchdown.

Robertson's pass to Smith in the fourth quarter ended in a six point score for Logan. Daffinson's kick was blocked and the game ended with Tomah leading.

Logan 0-Eau Claire 20

Logan was unable to break through the "Old Abes" pass defense in this game. The Rangers were only able to complete three of ten passes. Ground gaining was more productive but even after three decided threats at the goal line, Logan was unable to score.

In the fourth quarter Logan's touchdown drive was stopped when an intercepted pass set up a touchdown for their opponents. Bob Marco broke through to block their kick for the extra point.

Bob Knight, Ronnie Cotton, and Marco played an outstanding game in the line with Poellinger and Daffinson starring in the back field. Severson played a wonderful line game.

Logan 40-Sparta 0

Sparta failed to threaten during the entire game as Logan clicked on every offensive play. Logan moved through the air and on the ground with equal ease. The score at half-time was twenty-one to nothing.

Bud Smith made the first touchdown and Larry Daffinson kicked the extra point. Warren Robertson scored and Bob Marco made a third touchdown on an intercepted pass. In the third quarter Daffinson threw a pass to Poellinger which resulted in a touchdown by Lachman.

Robertson began the fourth quarter with a twenty yard sprint across the goal line. Bill Sullivan's pass to Rich Severson, who in turn lateraled to Daffinson, set up the final marker.

Basketball

Logan 52—Marshfield 40

Marshfield made it tough for Logan until the last quarter of this basketball tilt. Logan pulled ahead at that time aided in the final score by the 22 points garnered by Otto. Bud Smith sparked the team to victory.

Logan 49—Central 47

Logan had to play top-flight basketball to meet the onslaught of the Central Red Raiders. It was necessary for Logan to come from behind to win this thriller. Severson, collecting 16 points, was the high scorer for Logan. Hilde played an outstanding defensive game.

Logan 56—Menominee 51

Menominee gave Logan a better fight in this game. Severson was high with 23 points.

Logan 25—Aquinas 63

This game gave Aquinas the mythical city championship. A win by Logan would have meant a tie for the two teams. The half-time score was Logan 29 and Aquinas 26. Aquinas pulled away from the Rangers in the second half. Otto's 16 points gave him the scoring honors for Logan. Severson proved to be the spark of the team in this game.

Logan 40—Sparta 27

This Sparta-Logan game was the final one for the Rangers in their regular season — victory meant a tie for the conference championship. Sparta was on the losing end of the score during the entire game. Otto was the high scorer with 12 points.

Logan 56—Winona 42

Logan led throughout this game. This was the second defeat suffered by the Winhawks at the hands of Logan.

Logan 60—Menominee 44

This game proved to be a real one-sided affair. The Logan Rangers had no trouble rolling over Menominee. Rich Severson, with 21 points, was the leading scorer.

Logan 56—Sparta 33

Sparta gave Logan little trouble in this Gateway Conference game. Logan was ahead throughout the game. Otto was high with 23 points.

Logan 50—Tomah 44

A determined Logan team downed the hitherto unbeaten Tomah squad in this game. Tomah was never allowed to get too close throughout the four quarters. Otto was high scorer with 22 points. Bob Knight and Al Hilde played an outstanding defensive game.

Logan 51—Eau Claire 52

In the last seconds of this game, Bud Smith dropped in a free throw to tie the game. In an overtime play-off, the Old Abes came out the victors. Knight was the high scorer with 18 points.

Logan 62—Viroqua 49

Viroqua was unable to generate enough power to threaten the Rangers in this meeting. Terrific scoring power (Logan made 51 per cent of its basket attempts in the first half and 40 per cent of the total for the game) kept Logan way out in front. Otto led the scoring with 19 points.

Logan 53—Winona 45

The Logan Rangers showed their potential power in their opening game. Bob Otto was Logan's high scorer with twenty-three points. Logan won 53 to 45.

Logan 45—Tomah 46

Logan led throughout most of this game. The half-time score was Logan 26 and Tomah 16. Tomah came through in the final seconds to score the winning free throw which broke the tie game. Severson and Knight both played outstanding games.

Logan 53—Viroqua 47

The determined Rangers set on winning their second victory of the season beat Viroqua 53 to 47. Otto was again the high scorer with 17 points. Al Hilde played a fine defensive game.

Logan 39—Central 38

This game proved to be a nip and tuck affair played on the Central floor. Bob Otto turned in a perfect free throw record; he sank 11 out of 11 charity tosses. Al Hilde sank a game winner from 25 feet out as the final gun sounded.

Logan 55—Aquinas 57

Logan led all the way until the last minute in this close game. Bob Otto's 19 points led the Rangers in the scoring column.

Logan 38—Eau Claire 42

Eau Claire was on the losing end of this ball game until they rallied and emerged victorious in the fourth quarter. Severson was high with 12 points. Bob Knight's defensive play caused the Old Abes considerable trouble.

Tournament Games

Logan participated in the regional and sectional tournaments which serve as the preliminary games for the Wisconsin State Tournament at Madison. Since these tournaments are of the "sudden death" variety, the Rangers were not eligible for the state tournament after they were defeated in the finals of the sectional meet at Sparta.

In the first game of the regional tournament at Tomah, Logan beat Tomah by a score of 61 to 52. In the next game, Logan beat Mauston 72 to 36. In the final game, Logan met its old rival La Crosse Central for the third time of the year. Logan defeated Central by a score of 54 to 38 to make it a clean sweep for the year.

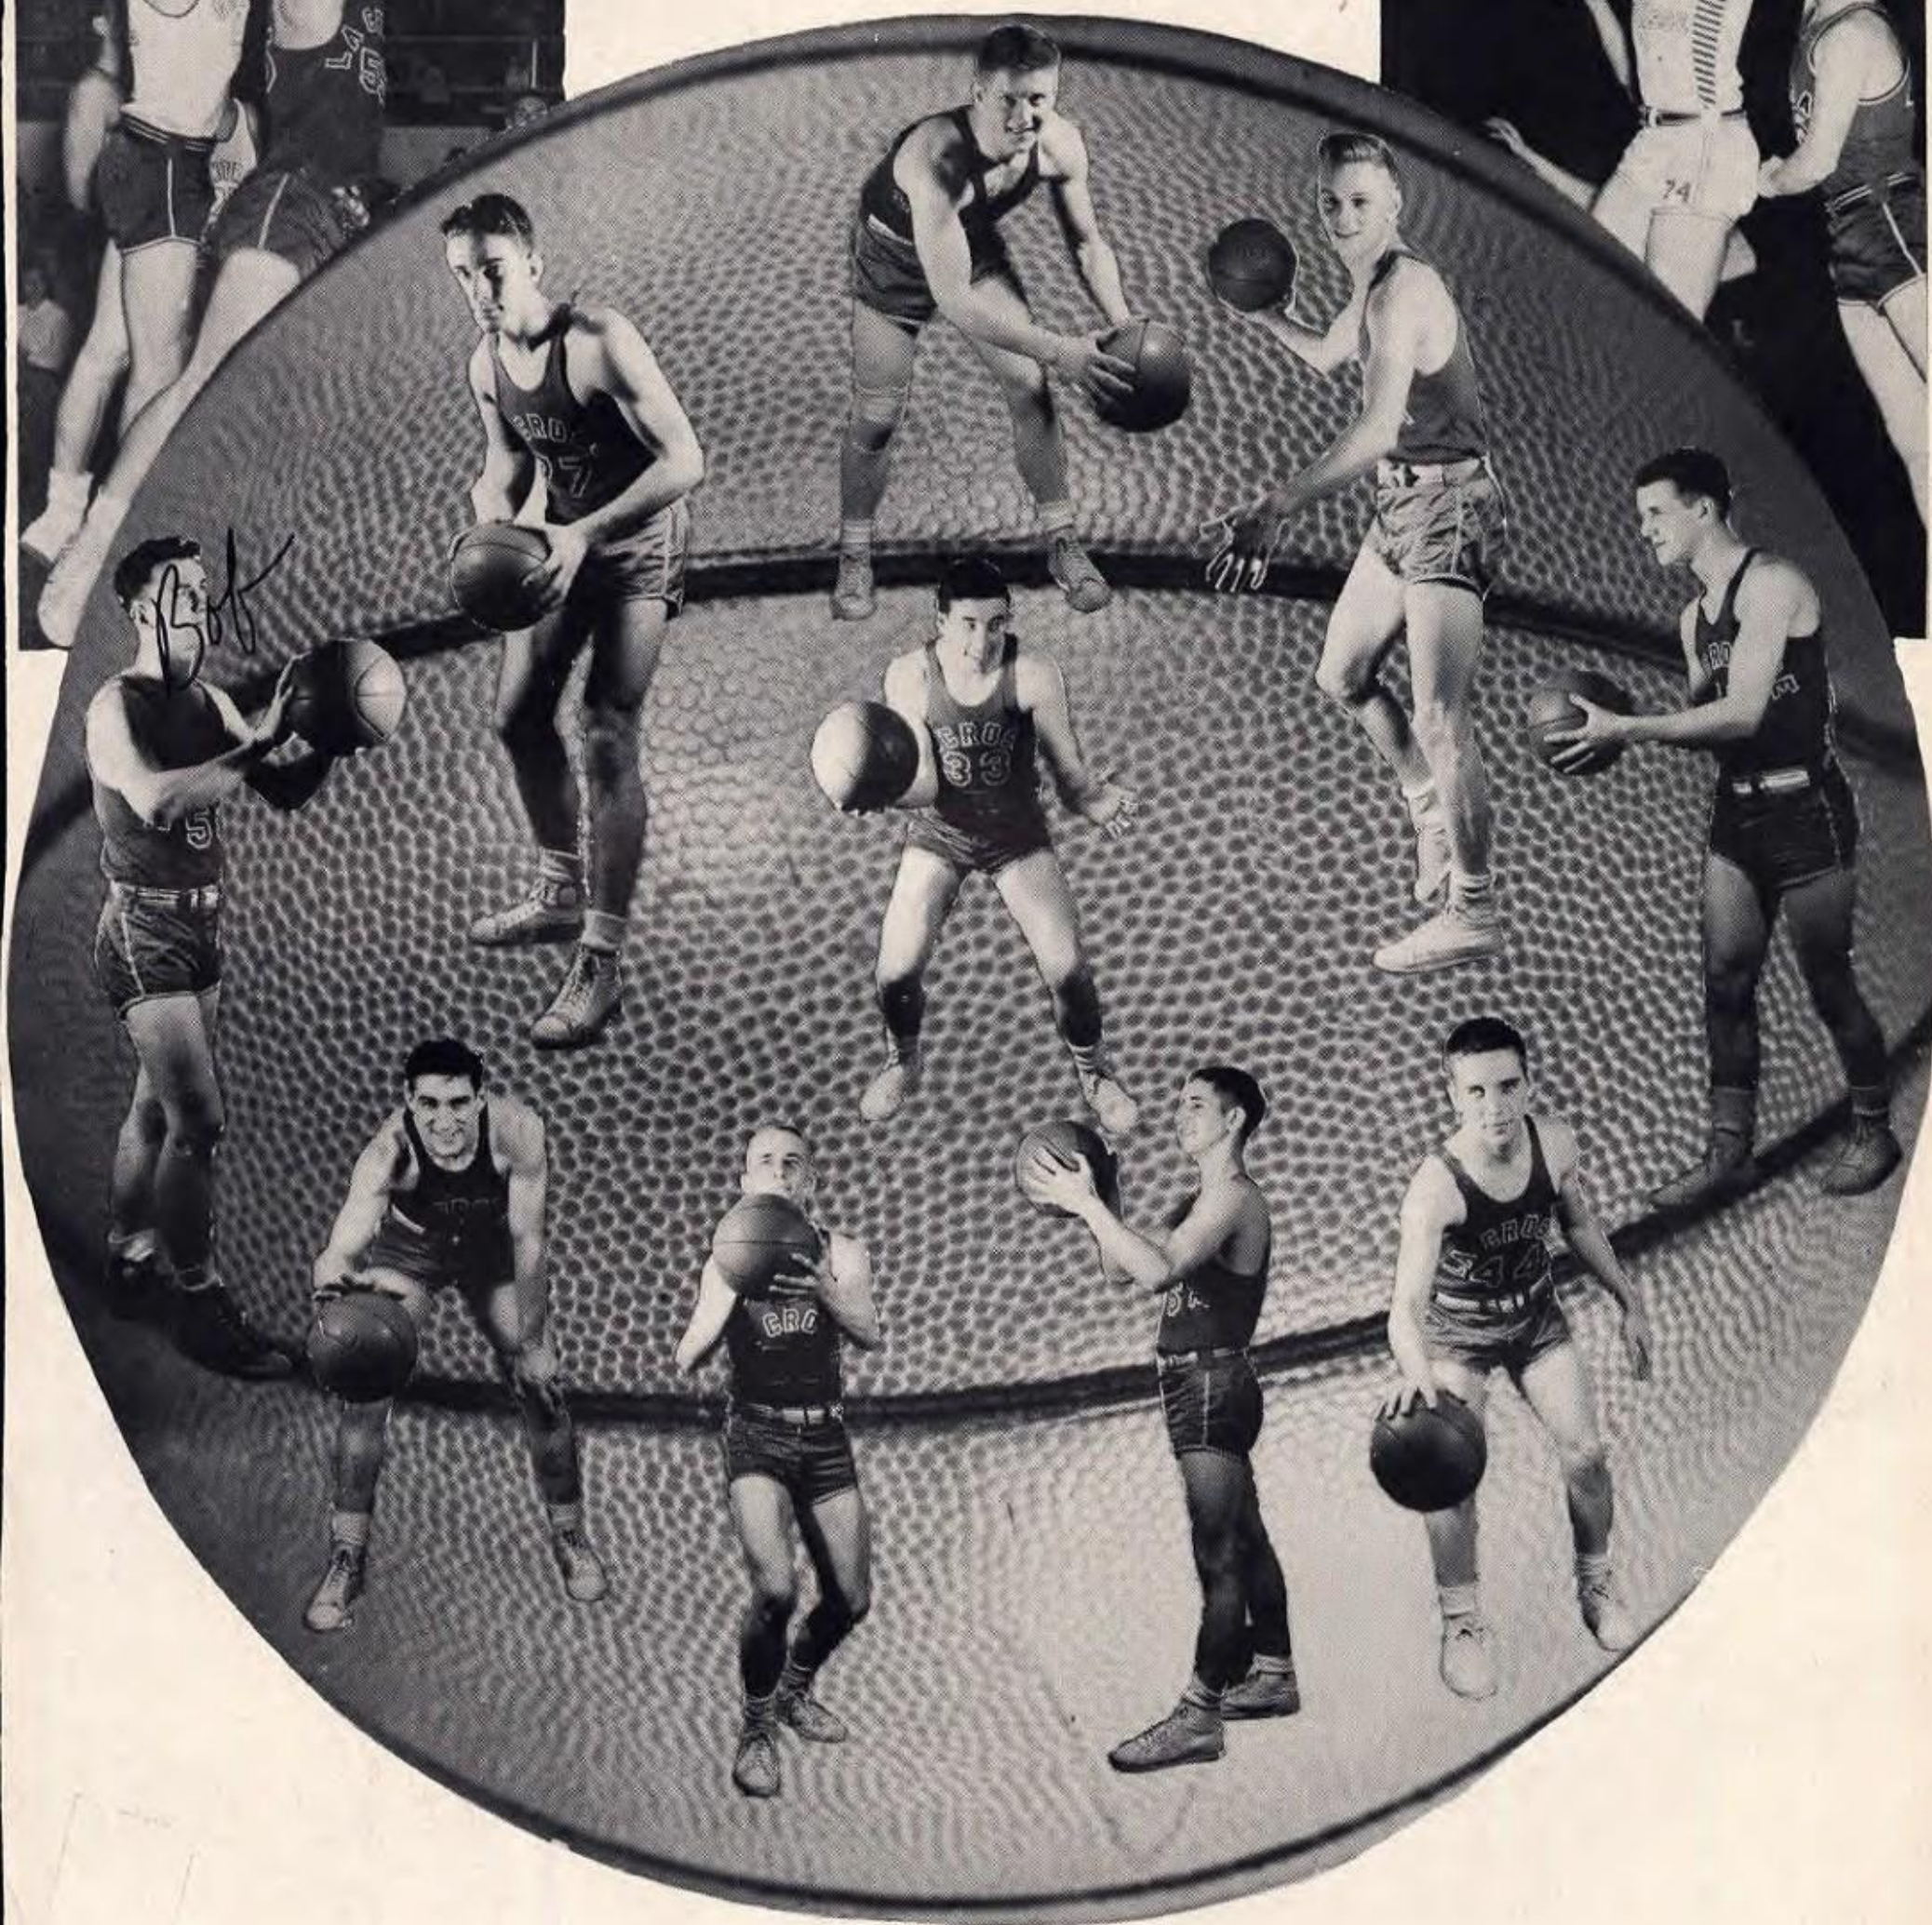

Logan beat Platteville 59 to 57 in an exciting overtime game which marked the opening of the sectional tournament at Sparta. In the second game that Logan played, the Rangers were defeated in a very close game (56 to 58) by Onalaska.

Baseball

The Logan Baseball squad ended one of its most successful seasons, last spring, winning ten and only losing one. They were beaten in the sectionals by Gays Mills; this game kept them from going to the state tournament.

This was Mr. Harold Blank and Mr. H. Mayer's second year of coaching baseball at Logan. It was also the second very successful year for them.

Pitching for the Rangers were Clinton Allen, Jack Smith, Richard Severson, Eddie Johnson and Donald Graig. Catching for Logan were Ray Peterson, Frank Brose, and Norm Lawrence.

Heavy hitters of the season were Frank Lubinsky, Clinton Allen, Ronald Twite, Richard Severson, Vernon Halverson, and Ray Peterson.

Golf

Golf is a game of skill which has a wide appeal. It is one sport which can be continued by the individual after graduation.

The 1950 squad was coached by Mr. A. Bronson. They had an exciting season although their losses outnumbered their victories for they lost four matches and won two. They lost to Eau Claire twice and Winona twice. They beat Lake City twice.

Since Mr. Bronson was recalled to the Navy, Mr. C. Horton has taken over the team. All 1951 Matches will be recorded in next year's annual.

Tennis

Spring and tennis seem almost synonymous at Logan, for as soon as the snow disappears the courts beside the building are filled with hard-practicing team members. Their practice paid off during the 1950 season which was marked with five wins and three losses.

Coach Earl Kolcinski built up a team made up of undergraduates. Their win-loss record is as follows: Logan 6-Winona 1, Viroqua 5-Logan 5, Winona 4-Logan 5, Logan 1-Eau Claire 6, Logan 5-Viroqua 3, Logan 3-Eau Claire 6, Logan 6-St. Pats 1.

The Girls Athletic Association has been one of the most popular and active clubs in the school for the past twelve years and is continuing to be such. Proof of this can be seen by visiting the gym every Tuesday and Thursday after school. Its purpose is to provide an organization where all girls may take part in athletics with other girls.

G. A. A. is divided into two groups: Senior G. A. A. consisting of the girls in grades nine through twelve, and Junior G. A. A. consisting of girls in the grades seven and eight. Senior G. A. A. is advised by Miss Ardith Inman. The adviser of Junior G. A. A. is Miss Eloda Rumsey.

To be a member, one must take part in at least three sports a year, and in her junior year, either four sports or take part in three sports and be an officer, one must attend the meetings and pay her dues. The sport enthusiasts have speedball, volleyball and kickball for Jr. G. A. A. and basketball, badminton, volleyball, tennis, archery and bowling for Sr. G. A. A. When you become a junior you receive a letter resembling the Logan boys athletic letters except the letters G. A. A. are inscribed on it. A pin is received in her senior year, the shape of a triangle with letters G. A. A. on it and a big "L" in the middle of it.

The G. A. A. was organized by Miss Ann Thomas in 1938-39, who served as adviser for six years. Gym materials were very scarce then, but now, with the help of past advisers and the present adviser, the girls have good equipment for all to use.

Bowling

A new addition was made to the list of sports that girls may participate in. This is bowling. This year the group of girls in this sport was a very small one, but next year a larger number is anticipated to turn out for this sport.

Each Tuesday after school, the girls eagerly went down to the Sports Bowl to see who could out-score the others. The two girls with the highest scores were Carol Dobrunz with an average of 109 points and Barbara Burr with an average of 106 points.

In order to get credit for bowling, the girls had to be there every time except one. The girls that were able to do this were Carol Noyes, Barbara Burr, Carol Dobrunz, Jean Schultz, Judith Ulrich, Sharon Deyo, Linda Lehman, Hazel Scarseth, and Helen Meyer.

Badminton

Once again towards the end of the cold winter months, it was time for the favorite sport of many G. A. A.'ers. This, of course, is Badminton. In order to play Badminton you must be quick on your feet and alert at all times. In play, a bird is hit back and forth over a five foot net. The game can be played by either two players, which is called singles, or four players, called doubles. Both single and double tournaments are held each year. Last year Joan Kenyon proved to be an outstanding player in the single tournament. In both types of tournaments, competition was held in the form of a ladder tournament. On the ladder, those in the lower ranks challenged those in the upper ranks. After several weeks of challenging and hard playing, the winner or winners are decided.

Those girls who came out on top were Joan Kenyon in the singles tournament with Barbara Buiggs as runner-up. Winners in the double sets were Joyce Larson, who was also a last year winner, and Caroline Rogstad. The runners-up in doubles were Barbara Burr and Dorothy Loughan.

Virginia Nelson was head of Badminton with the assistance of Sue Fingerhut.

High scorers on the bowling team were: Barbara Burr and Carol Dobrunz.

Basketball

The most popular sport of the year is a combination of speed, accuracy and good sportsmanship. Basketball is held during the months of January and February. A mixed class tournament was first held with a turnout of forty girls.

There were five teams with eight girls on each team. The winning team included Captain Evelyn Dennison, Gayle Baldwin, Kappy Miller, Marilyn Limpert, Jean Schultz, Sharon Deyo and Carol Noyes. They finished with a record of six wins and no losses.

After the mixed tournament, a class tournament is held. In this tournament, each grade team plays every other team. The sophomore class won the tournament with a record of five wins and one loss. The team consisted of Carol Brabant, captain; Carol Dobrunz, Jean Breidel, Marilyn Limpert, Margaret Smith, Ceceila Beitz and Helen Meyer.

Joyce Larson was the student manager of Basketball. The five outstanding scorers in the two tournaments were: Carol Dobrunz, 154 points; Jean Breidel, 104 points; Marilyn Limpert, 103 points and Kappy Miller with 91 points.

Volleyball

Volleyball is the first sport of the winter to attract the interest of the girls belonging to G. A. A. This sport is played with six to eight girls on each side of the volleyball net. Volleyball is a very active and exciting game. To play this game one must be fast on her feet, have a quick eye, and have a lot of arm action. In this sport both class tournaments and mixed class tournaments are held. The winners of the mixed tournament were the Hawks. The players on this team were: Evelyn Dennison, Gerry Limpert, Joan Kenyon, Jackie Miller, Celia Beitz, Jean Breidel, Sharon Dobson, Doris Schroeder, and Joan King.

The champions of the class tournaments were the Sophomores. Those on the Sophomore team were: Cecilia Beitz, Marilyn Limpert, Helen Meyer and Margaret Smith.

This sport is becoming very popular. Each year more and more girls are coming out for volleyball.

Junior G. A. A. also participates in volleyball. They get just as much enjoyment out of the game as Senior G. A. A. does.

 hope you'll do it again next year. It's even further to walk in senior homeroom than Illinois. We can't forget how we helped each other with chemistry, even if it wasn't a big help.
 nothing much else to remember. I wish didn't have any classes together.
 your luck in your senior year. Burdeen

Dear Dave
 Remember good old band & how well we played at all the games & so forth lots of luck to a swell
 kid. Shanon!

Dear Dave,
 of course you'll never forget band and dear old "Gassy". Those nice long marches etc. Also English class and that dear (?) substitute teacher - some dame!
 Good luck in your remaining year at Logan and in the future here.

Dear Dave,
We sure had a lot of fun in chemus by this year.
Mrs. Martin sure had his troubles with us. Remember when we (Schaefer & I) had a fire in our sink. Of course with my quick thinking I just let it burn up. I suppose you'll catch a 20 lb. walleye this year.
Sorry, but I'll have to top you with a 25
we'll probably have a lot of fun up at the fish factory this summer. John
going to work at the fish factory. Hope you get muscles and heap of money.

Dear Dave,
The only thing
to remember you is a the dances when we talk. Good luck to a swell kid in your future years and later at 100 and other places. I see some one what's you to work else where this summer. Will there not much to say but I hope you will be in my classes next year. Just think next we well be seniors in and out of school. You said I should write
a lot of fun up at the fish
factory this summer. John
going to work at the fish
factory. Hope you get muscles and heap of money.

Dear Dave,

Well, the 11th grade is almost over. I hope I'm in some of your classes next year. See, that summer vacation will sure be long without you. I'll miss you (sniff!) Oh excuse me, I thought this was a girls' annual.

looking through this annual and turn to page 84 and say, Gee whizz!
look here. That stupid G.K. signed it. Then you'll wonder when Charlie's going to let me out of West Salem (I'll probably be there by then.)

Only one more year of school. I think I'll miss it. This year was my most successful. I went to my first prom.
Now, just so I don't flunk in history. Especially chemistry. (I should always get too much work done. Especially chemistry. (I should be doing that now)
What's about all there's to write so I'll leave room for somebody to sign on

Dear Dave;
Well I always start
these out the same. Remember all the fun in Chemistry and History well!
I Hope you have fun over the summer.
Best of Luck in coming year.
Richard [unclear]

Dear Dave,
I do remember that day we led the discussion. I was scared stiff. But it wasn't so bad once I got started. I like the way you kept it rolling until the bell rang. There isn't anyone else in the class that could have done it better. Remember all the talks we got from Daniel about his wonderful heroinism.
Best of luck to you in your senior year and all the years to come
